DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1, 14, 27, 45, 58, and 71 are objected to because of the following informalities: “CPE” as used in each listed independent claim needs to be provided a definition (i.e. CPE (customer premises equipment) as was used in each independent claim not listed so as to avoid confusion; confusion has already arisen as witnessed by the numerous misclassifications of the subject application. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 2, 4, 12, 15, 27-37, 42-43, 46, 48, 56, 59, 71-81, 86-87, and 93-94 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 2, 4, 12, 15, 28, 43, 46, 48, 56, 59, 72, 87, and 94, reference is made to “said CPE” which causes confusion in that the two CPE’s were referred to directly as either ‘local’ or ‘remote’ in previous and subsequent claims.

Claims 27 and 71 recite the limitation “said voice message”. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in these claims.

Claims 42, 86 and 93 do not end with a “.” Period.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1-4, 8, 10, 12-13, 45-48, 52, 54, and 56-57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Peterson et al. (#6,385,303).

Peterson clearly teaches those limitations in the claims noted above (via reference to col.4,ln.63-col.5,ln.3; col.14,ln.13-col.15,ln.21) and the clal announce feature described therein.

6. Claims 14-25, 27-36, 38-39, 41-44, 58-69, 71-80, 82-83, 85-90, and 92-93, as best understood due to the confusion noted above, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Ensor et al. (#5,623,537).

Ensor (via col.2,ln.8-14 ; col.3,ln.1-11 ; col.4,ln.7-18 ; col.4,ln.33-50 ; col.9,ln.34-47 ; col.10,ln.38-50) teaches local CPE going off-hook to detect a CAS and using FSK to determine caller ID, Ensor further generates a page (voice message) to send to remote CPE and via use of caller identification, the remote CPE generates a voice message.

Conclusion

7. Claims 5-7, 9, 11, 26, 40, 49-51, 53, 55, 70, 84 and 91 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. The prior art previously made of record in the parent application, but not made of record in this application by the applicant, and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
